

Rewilding Europe: A vision for an old continent

Entrepreneurial nature conservation series

by

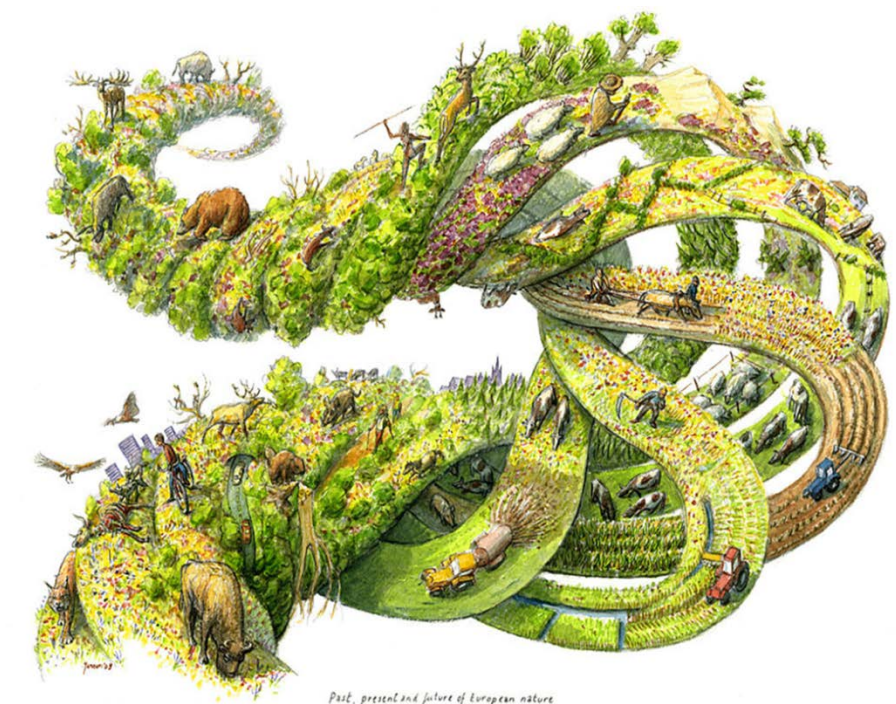

Wouter Helmer

Honorary professor VHL Forestry and Nature Management Program

Founder & director Rewilding Europe

Topic	Date	Time	Room
Introduction: vision and strategy of Rewilding Europe	Tuesday 15-11	11:00-12:30	J002
A wilder nature: how natural processes can shape our landscapes	Tuesday 22-11	11:00-12:30	J002
The wildlife comeback: the role of key species in the natural environment and how to support their comeback	Tuesday 29-11	11:00-12:30	J002
Wildlife Economies: the significance of wilder nature for new rural economies. The role of rewilding enterprises	Tuesday 6-12	11:00-12:30	J002
Scaling up rewilding: from pilot projects to an international approach and the different tools that can be used to reach this goal	Tuesday 13-12	11:00-12:30	J002

Past, present and future of European nature

Scheduled for 2nd year Forestry & Nature Management students

35 extra seats are available for guests on first serve basis, contact judith.jobse@hvhl.nl

Location Velp: Larensteinselaan 26a, 6882 CT Velp

Rewilding 1 million ha